MBS Parents Association supports our Catholic school community by sponsoring family oriented events for all to enjoy and by fundraising in order to provide students and teachers with new resources and opportunities. We volunteer our time, energy and talents to nurture our children and support our teachers and staff. Together we promote our immediate and ultimate objectives of Catholic education, namely the development of the physical and spiritual , intellectual and moral, individual and social aspects of the children.

UPCOMING EVENTS

WANT TO GET INVOLVED?!

We would love to have you! MBS has many volunteer opportunities. We are looking for room parents and volunteers at our many events. Do you have a special skill or talent? Chances are we can put it to good use. Please join us at a meeting or contact one of us to see what you can do for our students and school community today.

We are Faith-Filled Children of God who will be:

Fair and just

Accepting responsibility for our choices

Igniting our passion for learning

Treating others with respect, love and kindness

Helping those in need
