

We are Champions for Christ!

November 21, 2024

Dear Charger Family,

No school next week for Thanksgiving Break. School is closed from Monday, November 25-29. School resumes on Monday, December 2. Tomorrow is our OSU/Michigan dress down day. We do have Mass so please make sure that students do not wear face paint or any type of glitter or hair color.

Student midterms are coming home with each student tomorrow. Please read them carefully and make sure that students are on the right track to finish the second quarter successfully. The last day of the second quarter is on December 19. If a student in grades 3-9 has two failing grades on the midterm or a conduct grade lower than a C it makes them ineligible. Students may practice but not play in games until the next grading period which is December 19. Parents will receive a letter if the student is ineligible and coaches will be informed.

Eighth graders will be taking the High School Placement Test on Monday, December 2. Students need to bring several number 2 pencils NOT mechanical pencils for the test. Students also need a water bottle and a snack. Students will be dismissed at the completion of the test around 12:00.

Parish and School Update: There is a Town Hall meeting with Fr. Keith on Sunday, November 24 after the 11:00 Mass to discuss updates within the community. The old elementary school building has a fence around it to prepare for future demolition. The mobile classrooms are still awaiting a seal from the State of Ohio. Once that is received our units will be brought to us and installed. We do not have a date for this, but we pray for it daily.
