

We are Champions for Christ!

August 21, 2025

Happy Thursday, Charger Family,

The first three days have been great! Students are getting back into the routine of school day life. Please make sure that students are in dress code and ready for the day, especially on gym days. As a reminder no jeans day passes may be used on Fridays because of Mass.

If you have not turned in your paperwork, especially the EdChoice acceptance and consent forms and the transportation forms, please get those to the main office ASAP. Families with missing paperwork will get a separate Option C alert on Friday.

Families without NSLP Lunch application paperwork on file will be charged Full Price until we receive it. Even though families were free last year, does not mean you automatically are free this year. Please turn in that application ASAP.

Schoolstore.net has already raised money for our school by the few of you that have registered students. Many of you have graciously donated gift cards to our teachers. Thank you so much!

If you lost your directions for how to register, call the school office or send me an email and I will help. Friends and family can help too by simply going to www.schoolstore.com, searching for the school, and then shopping. The school will get the percentage of their purchases which is sent to us quarterly. Thank you in advance for helping! We really want to earn enough to get some new resources for our students.
