

Champions for Christ January/February: Sincerity

Sincerity is trustfulness in words and actions, honesty and enthusiasm toward others. It is putting others before oneself as a sign of respect.

Grades K-2

This student has displayed the virtue of sincerity by always being genuine in his actions toward others. Whenever someone seems upset this student is the first one to inquire if they are okay and shows concern for how they are feeling and how he can make the situation better. He is also always selflessly willing to help peers and adults.

Nominated by Ms. Meyer and Ms. Ruth Congratulations to 1st Grader Aiden Fuller

When I think of sincerity, this student comes to mind. She has a truly genuine heart and consistently shows love, kindness, and compassion to all of her friends in the classroom. This student treats others with respect and always looks for ways to make those around her feel included. Her warm spirit and caring nature helps create a positive environment for everyone. She is a wonderful example of what it means to be sincere.

Nominated by Miss Russell Congratulations to Kindergartener Khloe V.

Grades 3-5

This student is a beautiful example of living with sincerity.

She is honest in her words and actions.

She is sincere in her effort and works hard everyday.

She is sincere in her apologies, when she makes a mistake she owns up to it and apologizes with her heart.

She is sincere in her friendships and takes care of her friends with love and actions.

This student's actions and intentions align.

What a pleasure watching this student being the young lady God is calling her to be.

Nominated by Ms. Silver Congratulations to third grader Amira B.

Grades 6-8

This student measures her words before speaking. She considers their impact on others and never has an unkind thing to say. When she gives a compliment, it is not empty flattery, but a true reflection on another's gifts or talents. She uses her time wisely, which is a reflection of her respect for her fellow students, her teachers, and her parents. She is a light of sincerity to those around her.

Nominated by Mrs. Hennessy Congratulations to 7th grader Brooklynne B.
