This young student is kind and respectful to everyone she meets. She uses her manners when she comes into the office and the lunch line with a please and thank you every time without a reminder. During prayer times she shows a quiet respect for what is happening with prayerful hands and joyful responses. This student shows such love and respect to all of her teachers and friends with a joy filled smile.

Nominated by Mrs. Katie, Mr. Mower, and Mrs. Empie Congratulations to First Grader Twila Edwards

3-5 (Two Winners)

This student has always been respectful in the classroom and in the Good Shepherd Atrium, as well as when I pass her in the halls. She is very prayerful in her studies and loves to look up Bible scriptures. After reading the scriptures we discuss all that she just read, a lot of times compared to everyday life. Because she is so eager to learn more and more about God, she never hesitates to ask questions. She is also a very kind soul and honestly, it's been a real joy to be her teacher.

Nominated by Mrs. Sido Congratulations to 3rd grader Veronica Freeman

This student is a very prayerful person. When we ask for intentions to pray for in class, she not only prays for things in her life, but she prays for things in other people's lives and the world. She is very aware of situations in the world and she always tries to bring the power of prayer into those situations. Often she will come to me and say "I have a prayer intention today!" And it's always something different! She is honest and kind and always puts God first. She is a wonderful, prayerful young lady and I have enjoyed praying with her this year!

Nominated by Mrs. Tscherne Congratulations to fourth grader Aviahna Gebrosky

6-8 (Two Winners) 8th grade winner announced at Graduation

This student is always very respectful to teachers and classmates. This student is very prayerful and respectful when we pray. When a teacher asks this student to complete a task they do it, even if they may not want to, with a respectful response and completes the task immediately. This student's teachers have never had issues of disrespect or non-reverence during prayer at any time this school year. It is with pleasure that we nominate this student as a Champion for Christ.
