We are Champions for Christ!

November 12, 2026

Charger Family,
Fr. Kevin Moebius an alumnus of Most Blessed Sacrament Parish School will be celebrating All School Mass at 8:30 tomorrow. Fr. Kevin is the priest leader at Central Catholic High School. He will be bringing some upperclassmen from CCHS with him that are also alumni of our school. He will be doing a Q/A session with grades 6-8 after the Mass in the gymnasium.

There was a slight delay on our first service project of the school year. Each classroom now has a baby bottle to fill with coins for all of the young mothers that need assistance with their pregnancies and raising their babies. Please have students do an extra chore to earn some coins to donate to the baby bottles. This service project aligns with the Corporal Works of Mercy and the Catholic Social Teaching of Life and Dignity of the Human Person.

Midterm reports for the second quarter will be sent home on Monday the 16th. Any student accounts that are past due will receive an invoice instead of the midterm. Please make sure your accounts are current.

Next week is our last week of classes before the Thanksgiving break. School is closed November 23-27. School resumes on Monday, November 30.

Upcoming Dates:

- Monday, November 16-Mid-terms come home for Quarter 2
- Monday, November 16- First Dental Cleaning visit for those who registered for it
- Monday, November 23-27- NO SCHOOL-THANKSGIVING BREAK

Blessings,
Mrs. Melissa Empie
Principal
